

ARC 447

Comics, graphic novels or sequential art is a narrative form which still serves as a medium for experimentation and exploration also is increasingly associated with architecture. This course will pursue the narrative potentials of comics in order to create spatial experience. The course will also explore the effect of representation with a diverse aspect on architectural design.

architecture & comics

FADA Elective Course
Ali Paşaoğlu

Original Image: ITIM 0265 of Ben Pesterow, İsmail Çayır, 2016

